

Les Jeunes Ambassadeurs Lyriques

Created in Canada in 1994, the Jeunes Ambassadeurs Lyriques is an international program training and career development of singers from 18 to 35 years old.

Each spring, a national audition is organized in the cities of Montreal, Toronto and since this year, Victoria, to elect the winners of the program. In the fall, the selected singers will perform at the Rencontres Lyriques Internationales de Montréal and the XXVI gala concert of the Jeunes Ambassadeurs Lyriques. During these two stages, an international committee, bringing together world leaders, will select the most talented young singers to offer them opportunities around the world.

What the program offers :

- Commitments to a production or a theater troupe in Europe
- The Young Canadian Lyrical Hope Award and the Quebec Young Talent Lyrical Award
- Support grants - transport and per diem
- Audition tours in European theatrical theaters
- Concerts in Europe and Asia
- Special advanced courses in European opera theaters
- Semi-final participations in international competitions in Europe

Invited Opera Houses :

- From Germany: Regensburg Theater, Mainfranken Würzburg Theater, Staatstheater Mainz, Erfurt Theater
- From France: Opera Massy, Toulon Opera
- From Italy: Teatro Comunale di Bologna
- From Austria: Linz Theater
- From the Netherlands: Orfeo Foundation, Nederland Reise Oper
- From Switzerland: Theater Orchestra Biel Solothurn
- From Mexico: San Miguel Opera
- From Russia: Helikon opera
- From Byelorussia: Bolshoi Theater of Belarus
- From Bulgaria: Sofia National Opera and Ballet
- From Serbia: Serbian National Theater
- From Korea: Opera Deagu
- From China: Sunny Arts Culture Laiyin, Shenhen Poly Theater Show

* Other theaters may also be present